Article 8

Fundraising

- HOTD will organize two fundraising events in order to raise funds. One of these activities has mandatory member participation.
- A member can pay the contribution including the fundraising amount thus opting out participating in the fundraiser.
- The fundraiser activity entails that the member will be obligated to sell a minimum of 4 tickets to an event indicated by the HOTD board. The funds raised are for the HOTD carnival group (not for the members).
- If a member participating in the fundraising does not sell the obligatory fundraising tickets and deposits the total amount on the stipulated date, the total amount of the tickets will be added to his/her contribution.
- The board will communicate by which date the funds of tickets sold should be administered to the group. We will not accept any ticket settlements after the date and time of the fundraising event.
- The member is responsible for any and all losses or negligence as a result of not settling the funds in due time.
- Funds raised by members should be deposited on the HOTD bank account at the Maduro & Curiel's Bank.

Article 9

Force Majeure

The effects of a calamity and/or national crisis can have severe consequences on our country. Calamity and/or national crisis can present itself in various forms; corona-virus, pandemic, hurricane, floods, twisters, tsunami, structure collapse, water or electricity crisis, outage, large fire, terrorist attack, toxic substance, zika, firework and more. In the event of a calamity and/or national crisis the Curaçao Government has a Department of Crisis Control and Calamity Management who will advise the government on the steps to be taken. One of these steps may entail the cancellation or postponement of the carnival celebration. In this event the following points will be in effect:

- In the event that carnival is postponed due to a calamity, national crisis or an unforeseen situation, outside of HOTD's reach (for example a COVID-19 spread), HOTD will not reimburse the amounts paid to its members. The reason being that expenses have already been made in preparation for the carnival parades. Any amount paid to HOTD will be held and attributed to the member once carnival continues.
- When a member registers to participate in carnival 2022 with HOTD, the member agrees to participate according to the rules and regulations as set forth by the Curaçao Government in relation to the 2022 carnival celebration. The HOTD board will comply with any and all instructions to guarantee that the events and activities relating to carnival can be conducted in a COVID-safe manner.
